Title: Stability in p-Adic Towers of Global Fields

Speaker: Daqing Wan (University of California, Irvine)

Abstract: Given a global field K, we explore how various basic invariants (such as the class number) vary when K varies in a p-adic Lie tower of global fields. This expository lecture will present a series of fundamental stability conjectures with an emphasis when K is a function field of characteristic p.